STATEMENT OF OFFENSE

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, the United States of America, by and through its attorney, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and the defendant, Glen Wes Lee Croy with the concurrence of his attorney, agree and stipulate to the below factual basis for the defendant’s guilty plea—that is, if this case were to proceed to trial, the parties stipulate that the United States could prove the below facts beyond a reasonable doubt:

The Attack at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021

1. The U.S. Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C., is secured 24 hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police. Restrictions around the U.S. Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by U.S. Capitol Police. Only authorized people with appropriate identification are allowed access inside the U.S. Capitol.

2. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the U.S. Capitol was closed to members of the public.

3. On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the United States Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in separate chambers of the United States Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 p.m. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

4. As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the U.S. Capitol. As noted above, temporary and permanent barricades were in place around the exterior of the U.S. Capitol building, and U.S. Capitol Police were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol building and the proceedings underway inside.

5. At approximately 2:00 p.m., certain individuals in the crowd forced their way through, up, and over the barricades, and officers of the U.S. Capitol Police, and the crowd advanced to the exterior façade of the building. The crowd was not lawfully authorized to enter or remain in the building and, prior to entering the building, no members of the crowd submitted to security screenings or weapons checks by U.S. Capitol Police Officers or other authorized security officials.

6. At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway and the exterior doors and windows of the U.S. Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, shortly after 2:00 p.m., individuals in the crowd forced entry into the U.S. Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of law enforcement, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts. The riot resulted in substantial damage to the U.S. Capitol, requiring the expenditure of more than $1.4 million dollars for repairs.

7. Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 p.m., members of the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, all proceedings of the United States Congress, including the joint session, were effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 p.m. the same day. In light of the dangerous circumstances caused by the unlawful entry to the U.S. Capitol, including the danger posed by individuals who had entered the U.S. Capitol without any security screening or weapons check, Congressional proceedings could not resume until after every unauthorized occupant had left the U.S. Capitol, and the building had been confirmed secured. The proceedings resumed at approximately 8:00 p.m. after the building had been secured. Vice President Pence remained in the United States Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the session resumed.

Glen Croy's Participation in the January 6, 2021, Capitol Riot

8. Prior to January 6, 2021, Glen Croy drove from Colorado Springs, CO to Washington D.C., picking up Terry Lindsey in Piqua, OH along the way, to attend a political rally on January 6, 2021. On that morning, the defendant and Glen Croy went to the political rally at the Ellipse on the National Mall. Following the rally, the defendant and Terry Lindsey walked with a crowd to the U.S. Capitol. The defendant and Terry Lindsey stood at the steps of the Capitol for approximately an hour before they went inside the Capitol at approximately 2:20 pm by entering through the Rotunda Door on the South East Entrance. While inside, the defendant and Terry Lindsey walked through the Capitol, including through the Rotunda and close to the Crypt, among a large crowd. The defendant and Terry Lindsey took a photograph of themselves with a statue of Abraham Lincoln, entitled "Lincoln the Legislator," inside the U.S. Capitol, which they later distributed widely to others. The defendant and Terry Lindsey exited from the U.S. Capitol through the South East entrance to the Capitol after being inside the Capitol for approximately 20 minutes. There is no evidence the defendant or Terry Lindsey were violent or destructive on the grounds or inside the Capitol.

9. The defendant and Terry Lindsey were also accompanied by an adult female who went inside the U.S. Capitol with them.

10. The defendant and Terry Lindsey both knew at the time they entered the U.S. Capitol Building that neither of them had permission to enter the building. By entering the building, the defendant took part in a parade, demonstration, and picket inside the Capitol Building.
