Defendant)

Now comes Plaintiff and for their Complaint against Defendant Nightingale
Home Support and Care, Inc. state as follows:

PARTIES

1. At all times relevant, Plaintiff Rosa Rideout was citizen of the city of Painesville, County of Lake, State of Ohio.
2. At all times relevant, Defendant Nightingale Home Support and Care, Inc. (herein after "Nightingale") was a duly registered Ohio corporation with entity number 1175588.
3. At all times relevant, Defendant Nightingale is a home health care agency that caters to the needs of affluent retired professionals and older adults who wish to delay or avoid the need for Assisted Living and Nursing Home facilities.

4. John Does 1 through 10, names and addresses unknown to Plaintiff at this time but the Complaint will be amended when this is known, are employees and/or agents and/or corporate officers, and/or LLC members of Defendant Nightingale.

5. At all times relevant, Defendant Nightingale is vicariously responsible for the acts and omissions of any of its agents and employees under the principles of estoppel and/or respondeat superior and/or otherwise.

FACTS

6. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs as if fully restated herein.

7. On or about September 3, 2015, Plaintiff Rosa Rideout contracted with Defendant Nightingale to provide home support and care for Plaintiff Rosa Rideout, to wit – a qualified and competent caregiver.

8. Plaintiff Rideout trusted and was led to believe that Defendant Nightingale was going to provide a qualified and competent caregiver for her.

9. Defendants were trained to know that care of affluent individuals carried special responsibilities and risks, to wit: the need for integrity control checks, the need for criminal background checks, employees having exposure to valuable household items, employees having access to valuable real estate, employees having access to valuable personal items, and employees having access to valuable vehicles.

10. However, rather than provide a competent caregiver, Defendants provided Plaintiff Rideout with a caregiver who has a criminal history of stealing from the elderly.

11. Had Defendants performed even a quick google search on their employee they sent into Plaintiff Rideout's home, they would have discovered her criminal past.

12. They would have also discovered that authorities have called her the 'Sweetheart Swindler' and she has spent much of her time since the 1960s in state and federal prisons in Ohio and Florida for stealing from the elderly.

13. As a result of not performing a background check on the employee/caregiver, Defendants sent into Plaintiff's home, breached the duty it owed to Plaintiff.

14. As a result of this breach, Plaintiff had many of her personal belongings stolen.

COUNT I NEGLIGENT HIRING AND SUPERVISION

15. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs as if fully restated herein.

16. Defendants hired Tonya Weiss as their employee to be a caregiver to the elderly.

17. Defendant Nightingales employee Tonya Weiss was not competent to be a caregiver to the elderly due to her extensive criminal past including specific acts of taking advantage of the elderly.

18. Defendants knew or should have known of Tonya Weiss's criminal history which would have turned up on a background or simple google search.

19. Defendants negligent hiring and supervision of employee Tonya Wise caused damage to plaintiff.

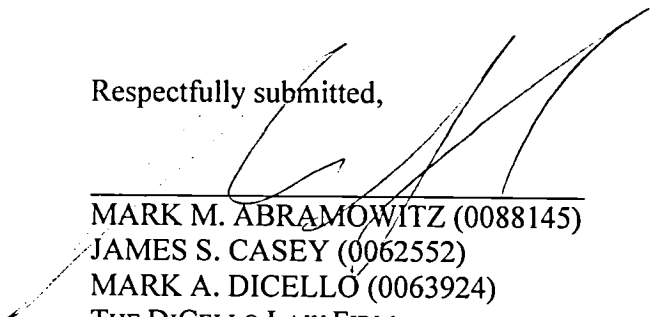

20. Had Defendants hired an appropriate employee to be Plaintiff's caregiver, Plaintiff would not have been injured.

21. These injuries include but are not limited to, the stealing of personal and family belongings, emotional distress, unauthorized expenditures out of Plaintiff's bank account, and the transferring of titles of real property.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendants jointly and severally, in an amount of excess of Twenty Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) for compensatory damages, together with interest, reasonable attorney fees, the costs of this action and whatever further relief this Court deems just and equitable.
