IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR PANDEMIC UNEMPLOYMENT CLAIM QUALIFYING DETERMINATION

Date: 07/01/2020

Dear Cameron C Flowers:

We have completed a review and investigation of your claim for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance referenced above. We have determined that your claim is APPROVED as you meet the qualifications required by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act of 2020 for Pandemic Unemployment assistance. In order to receive payment you must maintain weekly certifications until you are employed and earning over your weekly benefit amount.

Claimant had difficulty with Two-Factor Authentication. Adjudicator validated their identification, confirming and/or updating the telephone number and email addresses provided by the claimant.. now Determined and approved.

This qualification is effective 03/08/2020.

Please see the other side of this notice for the full text of the applicable law, 2102(c).

You may receive multiple decisions on your claim; please note that any one denial decision supersedes all other decisions. Your claim will be processed for payment unless there are other issues to be resolved. You can check the status of your claim by logging into EmployNV and from your dashboard, selecting Unemployment Services, then Claim Summary.

You have the right to appeal this determination.

You have 11 days from the mail date on this letter to file an appeal. This means your appeal must be submitted by 07/12/2020.

Please see below Appeal Rights and appeal filing instructions.
