OUR MISSION

The mission of TINHIH's Alternative Peer Group (APGLV) is to create a culture that is recovery friendly for youth. To promote healthy and fun activities; to provide a clean, safe environment that will encourage participation from youth. To introduce alternative ideas about recovery, driven by peer mentors.

"One of the goals for APG is to introduce the kids to recovery and show them that it can be fun. We offer different 12-step programs every day of the week, one-on-one sessions, and family meetings." —

Rhonda Fairchild, Executive Director.

ABOUT US

There is No Hero in Heroin (TINHIH) is a Las Vegas based 501c3 non-profit organization that has developed and opened the Alternative Peer Group (APG). APG is a drop-in center for teens suffering from substance use disorder. This after school/summer program is driven by peer mentors that provide recovery support services and healthy life skills. Programs such as painting, dance, yoga, recovery related meetings and family activities are all part of each day's activities.
