

FLUORIDE EMISSIONS INTENSITY LIMITS AT

Global Benchmark Aluminum Facilities

The following air permit fluoride emissions intensity limits were identified by the Oklahoma Department of Environmental Quality as benchmarks for top-performing primary aluminum facilities. Permit limits establish a maximum allowable level to account for varying weather and operating conditions. In day-to-day operations, actual emission levels are lower.

