No objection at all. You are making me super jelly with your jaunt to Jamaica. Would be amazing if you and your family would remember your favorite county public servant and pack me in your suitcase.

Alison,

Greetings from Jamaica. Hope you're somewhere finishing out the summer before school starts.

Quick question (we can discuss via phone if you'd prefer): My understanding is that your office does not object to the nurses put on leave returning to HDH once they've received the training. I believe that was CPS's position as well. I wanted to double check before conveying to hospital administration.
