III. Non-Vacancy Specific Recruitment Efforts During Reporting

Participate in at least four job fairs by station personnel who have substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions.	09/2025: University of Arizona Career Fair, attended by Sr Mgr, Creative Services/Promotions
	02/2026: Arizona State University Career Fair, attended by Executive Reporter
Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.	08/2025-09/2026: Through Scripps Journalism Career Program (JCP) KGUN partners with Arizona State University to hire two graduating students. The successful candidates enter into a two-year KGUN employment agreement with an opportunity to transfer to a second Scripps station following their first year with KGUN. While at KGUN, the JCP staff members are matched up with experienced staff throughout their one-year assignment. These essential business relationships provide the recent graduates the opportunity to learn hands-on broadcast methods, equipment training, on-air journalism skills, web-based reporting opportunities and, behind the camera producing experience that prepares them for their next career steps.
Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.	12/2025-11/2026: Station Leader Learning Program: Drives high engagement and measurable skill gains. GM builds cross functional connections in key financial management skills, strong Communities of Practice, and Adaptive Leadership. The program adds value in fostering collaboration and readiness for change and growth.
Participation in at least four events or programs sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting.	10/2025: GM/News Director and Executive Reporter spent the day visiting with students at ASU Walter Cronkite School of Journalism to discuss careers in journalism and how best to prepare for them.
	12/2025: Station hosted high school video production students from Vail School District for a tour and Q&A. Tour included information regarding various careers in the broadcast industry and some possible paths for education.
