EEO PUBLIC FILE REPORT

III. Non-Vacancy Specific Recruitment Efforts During Reporting

Participation in at least four events sponsored by organizations representing groups present in the community interested in broadcast employment issues, including conventions, career days, workshops and similar activities.	August 15, 2022: Our morning Multimedia journalist participated in the Arizona State Alumni panel. She spoke with Cronkite News students about her career and their futures in broadcast.
	June 23, 2022: Our General Manager and Studio Tech attended the Andy Harvey Indigenous Youth Media Workshop. This workshop brings together Native American and other high school students from across Arizona and the Southwest to the Northern Arizona University campus to learn about broadcast media and journalism. Our GM and Studio Tech were part of a panel and then met individually with students to discuss careers in broadcasting.
Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.	KNXV/KASW Internship Program is offered to college juniors, seniors, and graduate students interested in a career in broadcasting. Students receive college credit for their participation in our 12-week program and are evaluated by the assigned department manager upon completion. The Internship Program provides students real-world experience and unique insight into newsroom operations. This includes learning alongside newsroom management, reporters, photographers, news producers, digital producers, and assignment desk editors. All KNXV/KASW interns are compensated for their time. During the reporting period we hosted eight interns.
Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.	May 2, 2023: Our morning Meteorologist spoke to seventh and eighth graders at Excelencia School in Phoenix about her background and career path.
	June 2022: Both morning Anchors attended the Magid Anchor Institute at the Scripps Center in Cincinnati, OH. This workshop is focused on developing leadership skills so anchors can better serve their stations and communities.
	The company established a new Strategic Marketing Program for all sales leaders to enhance product knowledge and strategic sales concepts. During the reporting period, three local sales managers and one director of sales attended May 2023. This program will then be rolled out to all account executives.

III. Non-Vacancy Specific Recruitment Efforts During Reporting

	KNXV/KASW provides employees with continued training to enable them to acquire the skills necessary for advancement. Training initiatives during the period included: Online vocational training programs that offer required and voluntary courses, as well as on the job training. Employees in our News and Marketing departments were required to take the course "Inclusive Journalism." We have ongoing training on new equipment and cross-training in various departments to ensure our team members have the skills to operate new technology and learn other functions to offer them career advancement opportunities. During the reporting period we had 10 promotions as a result of this training.
	The company offers the Scripps Growth Plan Program to those employees who are interested in their continued career growth.
	The station offers an educational assistance program. We believe the pursuit of higher education allows our team members to continue to grow their knowledge and skills which could qualify them for higher level positions. The station provides $4,000 per calendar year. During the reporting period we had four employees participate in this program.
	During the reporting period the Director of Human Resources coached non-managers in developing their leadership skills. This effort is to prepare employees for promotions within the station. During the period HR worked with five employees.
Participation in at least four events or programs sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting.	June 23, 2022: ABC15 hosted high school students from across the country for a tour of the station and the viewing of a live newscast. The students are getting their first glimpse of journalism by attending a two-week, intensive camp called the Cronkite Summer Journalism Institute at Arizona State University (ASU). Our Traffic Anchor is the broadcast professor for this group of students at Arizona State University. Many on our team spent time with the students to share their broadcast experiences and career paths.
