Subject: CJCC Meeting today
Date: Friday, May 1, 2020 3:32:49 PM

Here is the summary:

The jail still has no inmate positives at this time, it is not clear how many tests they have done of inmates.

We will see a large spike in the reported numbers soon as over 40 young ladies as well as some staff at the Mingus Mountain Academy have tested positive. They have not yet made a public announcement but will soon. Please do not got to the public with this situation.

The County Atty is requiring that all release motion positions be staffed with a supervisor. The jail has suspended Misd. bookings unless necessary. The court has asked LE to not arrest on Misd. Warrants just instruct the individual to get it taken care of.

New Draft AO from the Supremes is coming it contains the following:

- Gives discretion to each jurisdiction on how to proceed and what rules to waive.
- Excludes notices without cause.
- Reduction in Preemptory challenges to 2 in Felony cases, 1 in Misd. cases, no change in capital, through 12/31/2020.
- Courts must set up video and audio access and limit hearings to only participants.
(funny we have been asking for that)
 - Yavapai County has about 25 to 45 trials in backlog. So the courts may suspend any new settings pending the backlog.
- Judges will accept verbal waivers and request that the waiver be filed within 10 days.
