Mr. Leffert,

In the last day or so, District staff and board members have received a copy of an anonymous written communication making allegations about CCSD Board member Anne Egan and CCSD CFO Scott Smith. It is particularly concerning that these letters were mailed to home addresses, which is information not readily available to the general public. Upon information and belief, the Smiths contributed significantly to said communication. The communication contains both mistruths and misinformation. The communication is particularly concerning as it targets a witness in the recent Smith Investigation and threatens to target two other witnesses. We want to again remind you and your clients that your clients are to refrain from retaliating against any witnesses in that investigation. To the extent your clients have any involvement in these communications, we are further demanding that your clients cease and desist from engaging in any further misleading communications. Please govern yourselves accordingly.

Best,

Jane Waterman-Joyce and Sonja McKenzie
