Code of Conduct

Welcome to The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo™ (“HLSR”). In order to provide a safe, secure and pleasant environment, we ask for your cooperation in complying with this Code of Conduct at all times

We reserve the right to deny admission to or remove any person.

General Rules and Policies

1. No alcoholic beverages, narcotics, or any illegal substances may be brought onto the HLSR Show grounds. HLSR reserves the right to deny admission to and remove any person who appears to be intoxicated or under the influence of any narcotics or illegal substances.
2. No person shall bring into or possess within HLSR Show grounds any firearm or weapons of any nature (or objects that appear to be weapons), including, but not limited to, knives longer than 5.5”, chains, ammunition, impact weapons, chemical agents (e.g. mace and pepper spray) or electronic control devices (e.g. Tasers, stun guns). No concealed-carry firearms will be permitted by non-law enforcement personnel on property at any time.
3. No domestic pets are permitted on HLSR Show grounds with the exception of service dogs.
4. All personal mobility vehicles cannot exceed 5 MPH on HLSR Show grounds at any time.
5. Proper attire must be worn on HLSR Show grounds at all times, including shirts and appropriate footwear. HLSR reserves the right to deny admission to or remove any person wearing attire that is considered inappropriate or attire that could detract from the experience of other guests. Clothing that is not appropriate for the HLSR Show grounds includes, but is not limited to, clothing with objectionable material (including obscene language or graphics), excessively torn cloth, visible undergarments, and/or clothing which, by nature, exposes excessive portions of the skin that may be viewed as inappropriate for a family environment. Wearing clothing, visible tattoos or any other attire bearing the name, insignia, colors, or other indicia of affiliation to a criminal street gang is prohibited on HLSR Show grounds.
