

You are invited to join a community
COVID-19 Vaccine: Virtual Town Hall for Minority Communities
Sponsored by Mayo Clinic in partnership with University of Arizona – College of Medicine, Tucson and Phoenix.

Thursday, January 21, 2021

5:00-6:30PM MST; 6:00-7:30PM CST; 7:00-8:30PM EST

Join key leaders in healthcare for a candid discussion about the COVID-19 vaccine.

Moderator:

Alyx Porter, MD

Associate Professor of Neurology
Consultant, Department of Neurology
Vice Chair Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion, Mayo Clinic

Panelists:

Francisco Moreno, MD,

Professor of Psychiatry, University of Arizona Colleges of Medicine, Tucson and Phoenix
Associate VP at the University of Arizona Health Science,
Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

Panelists:

Alyssa Chapital, MD, PhD, MBA

Associate Professor of Surgery
Medical Director, Mayo Clinic Hospital
Mayo Clinic

Ivan Porter, MD

Assistant Professor of Medicine
Consultant, Department of Internal Medicine
Vice Chair of the Division of Nephrology and Hypertension
Mayo Clinic

Juan Gea Banacloche, MD

Professor of Medicine
Sr. Consultant, Infectious Diseases
Mayo Clinic

Richard White, MD

Assistant Professor of Medicine & Pediatrics
Consultant, Community Internal Medicine
Mayo Clinic

Join us by registering in advance for this Zoom webinar

Click Here to Register

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar.

Please note that answering the questions shown once you click the registration link is voluntary and answers provided are anonymous. The pre-test is strictly to measure educational impact of the webinar.