EEO PUBLIC FILE REPORT

III. Non-Vacancy Specific Recruitment Efforts During Reporting

Participate in at least four job fairs by station personnel who have substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions.	9/23/25 - Worlds of Work Career Expo - Where businesses from a range of industries come together for a day of demonstrations designed to help students connect what they are learning in school with real-world job skills. The event took place at Great Falls College-MSU where KRTV brought in an anchor desk and showed students how to interview. KRTV was a representative in the Arts, Technology & Communications area and explored possible career paths and opportunities in broadcast news.
Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.	07/25/25 - KRTV's Chief Meteorologist conducted a job shadow and station tour with a retired Air Force Veteran in the Great Falls community who spent their career in meteorology and weather forecasting. The participant was also finishing their bachelor's degree in Broadcast and Operational Meteorology at the time.
Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.	Newsroom Upskilling courses, offered through LinkedIn Learning, helps employees in the newsroom develop and expand their skillset as a multimedia journalist. The self-directed series of courses cover 13 areas of proficiency necessary to develop in their current role and to further them in their career goals within the organization and industry. Scripps employees are offered LinkedIn Learning Licenses to continue their professional development. The platform allows employees to learn at their own pace. An employee can receive recommendations for content, or self-select from over 10,000 courses in categories such as business, technology, and creative areas.
Participation in at least four events or programs sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting.	03/05/25 - Hosted the Montana Educational Talent Search. The group brought 15 high school students from Great Falls High School and C.M. Russell High School to see the station and discuss what it takes to get into the journalism industry. The educational field trip included career opportunity conversations and covered question and answer sessions about the skills journalists need, what's hard about being a journalist, as well as the rewarding aspects.
