III. Non-Vacancy Specific Recruitment Efforts During Reporting

Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.	During the reporting period, WCPO continued its involvement in the DePaul Cristo Rey Corporate Work Study Program by providing on-the-job training to a student at the DePaul Cristo Rey High School, an institution devoted to building a pipeline to college for young people from diverse urban backgrounds who have limited educational options. The student worked with the Station's Sr. Manager of Community Affairs learning project management responsibilities. The student worked at the station weekly between September 2022 - May 2023.
	During the reporting period, WCPO partnered with Project SEARCH to provide employability skills training and workplace internships for individuals with significant disabilities, particularly youth transitioning from high school to adult life. WCPO had two interns working in our engineering and sales departments.
	WCPO partnered with a non-profit organization called Easley Blessed, which is a foundation that provides media production training to disadvantaged minority students in the age range of 14-23, in the summer of 2022. WCPO provided the following to the foundation: Provided a tour of the station. Partnered with the students to produce and air a story. Provided a few WCPO employees to act as speakers and trainers, including an in-depth training of our gear. Funded two student scholarships.
	WCPO HR Director, Katherine Rawe, coordinates WCPO's college intern program that allows college students to get practical hands-on experience in broadcasting employment. During this reporting period, the station had one student focusing on learning the news department.
Participation in scholarship programs designed to assist students interested in pursuing a career in broadcasting.	On February 3, 2023, WCPO's Vice President/General Manager, Jeff Brogan, communicated to all staff the availability for station employees to apply for the Ohio Associated of Broadcaster's (OAB) kids scholarship. OAB gives out a $2,500 scholarship to a graduating high school senior who is the child of a member station and planning to attend college this fall.

III. Non-Vacancy Specific Recruitment Efforts During Reporting

Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.	WCPO and its employees participate in The E.W. Scripps Company's Career Management Program that includes training to help employees develop their career skills. In addition, all WCPO employees enjoy the opportunity to pursue career advancement through online training in stations-related skills such as management and leadership, career growth planning, job interviewing, and a variety of specific skill sets. This eLearning systems is also used for EEO training and other mandatory compliance trainings.
	Scripps has partnered with Google to offer Google Career Certificate Programs in Project Management, Google UX Design, Google Analytics and Google IT Support to all WCPO employees.
Establishment of a mentoring program for station personnel.	The WCPO Black Inclusion Resource Group has an informal mentoring program where more seasoned journalists are paired with newer journalists to help them navigate through their employment and career goals.
Participation in at least four events or programs sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting.	On March 8, 2023, WCPO Director of Engineering, Larry Shields, attended the Career Day at Indian Hill High School. He met with students about career opportunities in broadcast.
	On December 7, 2022, Oyster High School students in the media arts class toured the station as well as learned about careers in broadcast.
	On December 1, 2022, WCPO's GM, Jeff Brogan, spoke on a panel at the University of Dayton about the news industry, offering advice for careers, and entering the workforce in general.
	During the reporting period, WCPO hosted several media classes from the University of Cincinnati to provide tours as well as explain broadcast careers.
	Several WCPO employees attended the Scripps Day at Ohio University, Scripps College of Communication on January 26, 2023. They spoke with media students on broadcast careers, Q&A, and experiences working in broadcast.
