III. Non-Vacancy Specific Recruitment Efforts During Reporting

Participation in scholarship programs designed to assist students interested in pursuing a career in broadcasting.	September 20, 2025 - WSFL donated a scholarship as part of the South Florida National Association of Black Journalists Award Gala. This scholarship was presented to a student pursuing a career in broadcasting enrolled in college in South FLorida.
Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.	WSFL employees can participate in E.W. Scripps Educational Assistance Program to enable all company employees the opportunity to pursue higher education in a degreed program. Based on the calendar year, the program reimburses employees for the cost of tuition and books up to $5,250 per year.
	WSFL employees participate in E.W. Scripps Company's Career Management Program that includes training to help employees develop their career skills. In addition, all WSFL employees enjoy the opportunity to pursue career advancement through online training in stations-related skills such as management and leadership, career growth planning, job interviewing, and a variety of specific skill sets. This eLearning systems is also used for EEO training and other mandatory compliance trainings.
	Google certifications in data analytics, digital marketing and ecommerce, IT support, project management and UX design are available to all employees of E.W. Scripps to pursue with interest. Opportunity is based on licenses that open at various times throughout the year as employees earn certification and leave a license vacancy.
