Sheriff William Gore
San Diego County Sheriff's Department
9621 Ridgehaven Ct.
San Diego, CA 92123

Re: Investigation into the Death of Rebecca Zahau

Dear Sheriff Gore:

On behalf of Rebecca Zahau's mother, Pari Zahau, and her sister, Mary Zahau-Loener, I hereby request that you facilitate having another agency perform an independent review of the evidence presented in this case. It has been ten years since Rebecca's death, more than three years since a civil jury found Adam Shacknai responsible for her death, and more than two years since Superior Court Judge Katherine Bacal ruled that the evidence presented in the civil lawsuit "puts the Sheriff's conclusion into question."

The controversy over your decision to classify Rebecca's death as a suicide has also ignited substantial public interest, resulting in special segments by nationally syndicated television shows, multiple television miniseries, countless blogs and articles, two books and constant local news coverage. I respectfully submit that the only way to relieve the Sheriff's Department of the stigma associated with this investigation, and restore the confidence of the Zahau Family and the public, is to have the matter reviewed by a truly independent agency.

You have publicly stated that you would welcome the case being reviewed by another agency. At this time I ask that you honor your offer to the public and stand by your word, by seeking a review of the case by another agency.

In Rebecca's Memory,

C. K. Greer

C. Keith Greer, Esq.
