EEO PUBLIC FILE REPORT

III. Non-Vacancy Specific Recruitment Efforts During Reporting

Participate in at least four job fairs by station personnel who have substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions.	2025-08-05 - 2025-08-07 WTXL's Sr News Director/Station Manager worked the Scripps recruiting booth during the National Association of Black Journalists Career fair in Cleveland, Ohio. During the three days she met with potential candidates about job opportunities at Scripps and WTXL and conducted several in-person interviews.
Participation in at least four events sponsored by organizations representing groups present in the community interested in broadcast employment issues, including conventions, career days, workshops and similar activities.	2025-08-21 WTXL's Local Sales Manager and Account Executive attended the Valdosta Chamber of Commerce Business Expo. They networked with other businesses and community members and discussed industry insights and ongoing opportunities at WTXL. The expo was open and free to the public of South Georgia.
	2025-07-15-2025-07-16 WTXL's Sr News Director/Station Manager attended United Partners for Human Services 26th annual conference. She represented WTXL as a local station leader as well as the Junior League of Tallahassee, as their President. United Partners for Human Services' mission is to empower human service organizations through advocacy, engagement, and education while positioning each member organization to perform and serve at its highest capacity.
	2025-08-15-2025-08-17 WTXL's Sr News Director/Station Manager participated in the Tallahassee Chamber of Commerce annual conference at Amelia Island. During the conference, she was a live guest on a radio show segment where she spoke about the tv news station and their new partnership with a local radio station.
Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.	All Scripps employees have access to an online tool, Career Compass which helps employees chart a course for their own professional development by providing information and links to career resources in a consolidated self-service format.

III. Non-Vacancy Specific Recruitment Efforts During Reporting

WTXL's Executive Reporter completed Scripps' Executive Reporter Training Program, a 12-week course for first-time managers based on Franklin Covey's "6 Critical Practices for Leading a Team." The program pairs 30-minute weekly asynchronous modules with biweekly one-hour group sessions led by experienced News Directors and ends with a 360-degree learning diagnostic to shape personalized development plans. This initiative furthers Scripps' three-year leadership strategy to embed values, foster continuous learning, and build high-performing teams.

Level Up is a manager-focused development series to strengthen connections and a high-performing culture at Scripps. It offers three flexible, nine-week learning opportunities (about 45 minutes/week) combining articles, podcasts and leader- or peer-led online discussions, with a dedicated Teams channel for collaboration. The training modules are on role clarity, goals and expectations, and feedback.

Scripps implemented a new decision-making model to provide greater role clarity and streamline the decision-making process for all employees. This DARE model will help employees and leaders better understand their responsibilities and contribution to various decisions, leading to increased productivity and efficiency.

Reporter/Multimedia journalist upskilling coursework is available to news gathers employed with E.W. Scripps in developing their skills in three unique and varied ways: virtual trainings, email tips and on-demand resources. 	WTXL employees can participate in E.W. Scripps Educational Assistance Program to enable all company employees the opportunity to pursue higher education in a degreed program. Each calendar year, the program reimburses employees for the cost of tuition and books up to $5,250 per year.
Establishment of a mentoring program for station personnel.	All WTXL employees have access to the Scripps resource "Career Hub". The Career Hub provides ways for employees to expand their network by finding or serving as a mentor. The Career Hub also provides employees with coaching and ways to explore possible careers within Scripps and build career development plans.
Provision of training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination.	In March of 2025 station's HR team conducted Leading Effectively Through Accountability and Development (LEAD)Training for all managers. The purpose of this training is for developing and holding employees accountable for conduct and performance expectations while ensuring there is no discrimination. This 60-minute presentation features interactive discussions on various topics, including setting performance expectations, accountability, employee recognition, distinguishing policy from performance issues, corrective actions, and documentation. There is a strong emphasis on ensuring consistent communication from the outset of the employee lifecycle, starting with the interview process. Additionally, the training highlights the importance of managers documenting issues and involving HR for guidance on compliance, accountability, and consistency.
