SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of: three (3) years, as to each Count, to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and a maximum of 20 tests per year of supervision thereafter.
 - The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: BRADLEY BUNN
CASE NUMBER: 1:20-cr-00158-CMA-1

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may, after obtaining Court approval, notify the person about the risk or require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must participate in a program of mental health treatment approved by the probation officer and follow the rules and regulations of such program. This treatment may also include anger management treatment. The probation officer, in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise your participation in the program as to modality, duration, and intensity. You must pay for the cost of treatment based on your ability to pay. The probation officer shall communicate on a regular basis with the mental health treatment provider concerning potential radicalization and mobilization behaviors exhibited by the defendant and report any such concerns to the Court.
2. You must submit your person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, Internet capable device, other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, and effects to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.
3. You may not create or access any social media account without providing the probation officer with an identification of the account and all usernames, passwords, and other information necessary to enable the probation officer to access the account. The identification of the account and all usernames, passwords, and other information needed to access the account shall be provided to the probation officer within 24 hours of you initially accessing the account (post-incarceration or after creating the account). Similarly, any change in such information shall be reported to the probation officer within 24 hours. All such accounts shall be subject to search and/or review by a United States Probation Officer at any time. You must also disclose the usernames and passwords for all computers or Internet capable devices you use to the probation officer. This condition is for the sole purpose of monitoring your use of social media or online activity related to radicalization and mobilization behaviors, and your involvement with extremist or anti-government movements, associations, organizations or militia groups (including but not limited to Three Percenters, Oath Keepers, and Boogaloo).
4. You shall not visit any Internet site which advocates, approves of, endorses, or associates with any extremist anti-government movement, association, organization, or militia group (including but not limited to Three Percenters, Oath Keepers, and Boogaloo).
5. You must not knowingly associate or have contact with any individual you know or have reason to believe is a member of any extremist anti-government movement, association, organization or militia group (including but not limited to Three Percenters, Oath Keepers, and Boogaloo). For purposes of this prohibition, "associate" and "have contact" include on-line and virtual association or contact.
