EEO PUBLIC FILE REPORT

III. Non-Vacancy Specific Recruitment Efforts During Reporting

Participate in at least four job fairs by station personnel who have substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions.	On September 16, 2025, an Executive Reporter attended the Fall 2025 Internship & Career Fair at Colorado State University Pueblo. The purpose of the job fair was to connect employers with students and community job seekers, providing opportunities to share information about careers in broadcasting, discuss current openings, and promote The E.W. Scripps Company as an employer of choice.
	On Tuesday, September 16, 2025 and Thursday, September 18, 2025, KMTV's Sr. Talent Acquisition Partner and Talent Acquisition Partner hosted an Indeed virtual career fair focused on Account Executive openings. Fourteen candidates registered, ten interviews were completed, and three finalists were scheduled to meet with the General Manager the following week which resulted in one offer extended. During interviews, candidates were briefed on role expectations and provided details about working at KMTV. The event was promoted via Indeed.
	On October 24, 2025, the News Director, participated in the College Broadcasters, Inc. National Student Media Career Fair in Denver. The event included a meet-and-greet with student media professionals from across the U.S., providing opportunities to discuss open positions, career paths, and the station's workplace culture.
Co-sponsoring at least one job fair with organizations in the business and professional community whose membership includes substantial participation of women and minorities.	April 14, 2025, KOAA participated in the Colorado Broadcasters Virtual Job Fair during the week of April 14, 2025. Our involvement promoted diverse hiring for positions such as Senior Reporter, Multimedia Journalist, Account Executive, and Assignment Editor contributed significantly to the event's success. Our Sr. Reporter was the hiring manager of record for this event.
Participation in at least four events sponsored by organizations representing groups present in the community interested in broadcast employment issues, including conventions, career days, workshops and similar activities.	On April 25, 2025, a KOAA Meteorologist participated at the New Summit Charter Academy Career Fair. The event connected students with professionals across multiple industries and offered hands-on learning experiences, including insights into careers in broadcast meteorology.

III. Non-Vacancy Specific Recruitment Efforts During Reporting

	On November 14, 2025, KOAA's Local Sales Manager served as a judge at the Colorado DECA District #12 Leadership Conference in Fountain, Colorado. The conference brought together high school students from across the region to compete in entrepreneurship and business events designed to develop critical career skills, including problem solving, creativity, communication, and market strategy. Students were challenged with real-world business scenarios in timed role-plays, presenting solutions that were evaluated against DECA's standardized performance indicators. By participating as a judge, the Local Sales Manager contributed to a meaningful day of professional development for local youth, strengthened KOAA's connection to the community, and supported initiatives that encourage future career opportunities in broadcasting and related fields.
	On July 21-23, 2025, KOAA hosted a Summer Job Shadow opportunity for a local student interested in exploring broadcasting careers. Over the three-day experience, the student was paired with multiple station personnel to observe newsroom operations, production workflows, and on-air preparation. The program provided hands-on exposure to the daily responsibilities of reporters, producers, and technical staff, as well as insight into the skills needed to pursue employment in the broadcast industry.
	On January 22, 2025 A Director had the privilege of spending the day with 2 journalism classes at Castle View High School in Castle Rock. Instructor Frank Martin and the director critique vo's and sotvo's with the students which they produced and edited. The director spent time in the studio setting up a chroma key and adjusting some lighting.
Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.	Reporter/Multimedia Journalist Upskilling: KOAA/Scripps provides coursework to help news gatherers develop their skills in three unique ways: virtual trainings, email tips, and on-demand resources. Topics include conversation writing, time management, tips and tricks for basic shot compositions, natural sounds and active interviews, building relationships, and cultivating sources

III. Non-Vacancy Specific Recruitment Efforts During Reporting

Provision of training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination.	On 4/1/2025, LEAD Training will be conducted by the HR Business Partner for all People Managers at the station. This 60-minute presentation will feature interactive discussions on various topics, including setting performance expectations, accountability, employee recognition, distinguishing policy from performance issues, corrective actions, and documentation. There will be a strong emphasis on ensuring consistent communication from the outset of the employee lifecycle, starting with the interview process. Additionally, the training will highlight the importance of managers documenting issues and involving HR for guidance on compliance, accountability, and consistency.
	In response to the evolving nature of our company, Scripps implemented a new decision-making model to provide greater role clarity and streamline the decision-making process for all employees. This DARE model will help employees better understand their responsibilities and contribution to various decisions, leading to increased productivity and efficiency.
